8 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

9 CASE NO. CR18-5580 BHS

10 Plaintiff,

11 ORDER

12 v.

13 GERMAN DE LA CRUZ,

14 Defendant.

15 This matter is before the Court on Defendant German De La Cruz's Motion for 16 Early Termination of Supervised Release. Dkt. 139. The United States Probation Office
17 supports early termination of supervision.¹ The Government does not oppose early 18 termination of supervision. Dkt. 140. It asserts that "it is apparent, based upon Mr. De La 19 Cruz's post release conduct, that he currently does not pose a danger to the community."

23 ¹ Probation did not file anything on the docket but rather, in an email to chambers, stated
24 that it supports early termination of De La Cruz's supervision. The Government acknowledges 25 Probation's support in its non-opposition brief. Dkt. 140 at 1.

1 The Court finds that early termination of De La Cruz's supervised release is 2 appropriate. De La Cruz has complied completely with the terms of his release without a 3 single violation since supervision commenced over two years ago. The Court recognizes 4 that complete compliance with the conditions of supervised release for an extended 5 period demonstrates rehabilitation and that the possibility of early termination provides 6 incentive to defendants to do well on supervision. Here, De La Cruz's compliance as well
7 as the support from the Probation Office and the Government warrant early termination 8 of supervised release.

9 Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the Motion for Early Termination of 10 Supervised Release, Dkt. 139, is GRANTED.
